Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

January 18-25, 2022

"We saw the star in the East, and we came to worship him." Matthew 2:2

Join His Eminence Cardinal Thomas Collins and a wide representation of Christian leaders to pray for the restoration of full visible unity willed by Jesus Christ for the Church. We will pray at Holy Trinity Armenian Apostolic Orthodox Church at 920 Progress Avenue, Scarborough, on Sunday, January 23, 2022 at 4:00 p.m. All are welcome to attend in person.

Watch the livestream on Facebook:

www.facebook.com/TorontoArmenianChurch.

In this annual celebration we are reminded that the unity of the Church is both a gift of the Holy Spirit and a task for all Christians.

"Change of heart and holiness of life, along with public and private prayer for the unity of Christians, should be regarded as the soul of the whole ecumenical movement, and merits the name, 'spiritual ecumenism.'"

(Unitatis redintegratio, 8)

The Synod on Synodality

The Synod on Synodality is a two-year process of listening and dialogue beginning with a solemn opening in Rome on October 9 and 10, 2021 with each individual diocese and church celebrating the following week on October 17. The synodal process will conclude in 2023.

Pope Francis invites the entire Church to reflect on a theme that is decisive for its life and mission: "It is precisely this path of synodality which God expects of the Church of the third millennium." This journey, which follows in the wake of the Church's "renewal" proposed by the Second Vatican Council, is both a gift and a task: by journeying together and reflecting together on the journey that has been made, the Church will be able to learn through Her experience which processes can help Her to live communion, to achieve participation, to open Herself to mission. Our Archdiocese invites all of us to share our thoughts.

A survey has been prepared by our Archdiocese, please visit <https://www.archtoronto.org/en/> to access the Survey.

Please plan to attend a very special teaching Mass on Tuesday, January 25th at 12:10 p.m. in Guardian Angels Parish to learn more about the greatest gift that has been given to us in our lifetime.

The Board of Trustees has voted to fill this vacancy (January 1, 2022 to November 14, 2022) by engaging in a process to select and appoint a qualified candidate. The position is advertised until closing on January 28, 2022, on the Board's website at www.smcdsb.on.ca/trusteevacancy. Stewardship Reflection

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's second reading, St. Paul tells us that just as the body is made up of many individual parts, so too the church is made up of many individual disciples, all of which have an important role to play. We each have a unique set of gifts and talents that God has bestowed only on us. Let us gratefully acknowledge these unique gifts and seek ways to offer them back to the Church.
